

Call for Entries: The PICTURE WINDOW Exhibit

Artwork by Kate Carson

The Cultural Center of Cape Cod seeks entries to "PICTURE WINDOW," a juried exhibit of art that incorporates actual windows or that depicts windows and the views seen through them from outside or in. All media are acceptable: paintings, drawings, assemblage, mixed media, photography, glass art, textiles, sculpture, etc.

The submission fee is $10 per entry. There is no limit on the number of entries. Approximately 40 pieces will be included in the exhibit, which will run from November 28-December 20 in the Great Hall Gallery.

The Cultural Center will collect a 30% commission on work sold. Drop off days will be November 25 from 12:30-4:30pm and November 26 from 9:30am-4:30pm.

All work must be accompanied by an entry form available at the Center, www.cultural-center.org , or emailed by request. All wall art must be properly prepared for hanging. No sawtooth hangers, please.

Please do not assume that a power outlet will be available for lighted work. Consult staff before submitting.

This will be a juried exhibit. Artists whose work is not accepted must pick it up on November 27 or by special arrangement.

"We do our best to be as democratic and welcoming as possible," says Executive Director Robert Nash, "but we also strive to strike a balance between media, styles, and the work of both emerging and established artists."

A free opening reception will take place on Friday, November 30 from 5-7pm.
